During its annual year-end party, the Kap Sno-Rovers snowmobile club recognized the efforts of the sixty-four volunteers who, starting in the summer of 2008, worked thousands of hours to make the 2008-09 season one of the clubs longest and most successful. Special recognition was given to five volunteers whose efforts stood out during the past season. Daniel Lepage was named Rookie of the Year and Bob Roussy was named Trail Patroller of the Year. Jules Lauzon and Jim Mangan were named Volunteers of the Year. Yvon Côté's name was submitted to the Northern Corridor as the Sno-Rovers candidate for District Volunteer of the Year for the region from Hearst to Cochrane.

During the evening, a special tribute was granted to Mr. Donat Gagnon, a young 85 year old who marked his 40th anniversary as a club member. The Kap Sno-Rovers Board of Directors created a new category of recognition in order to underline the efforts of volunteers who have contributed to the success of the club over a period of numerous years and Mr. Donat was the first recipient. After the presentation of his Lifetime Membership plaque, Mr. Gagnon received a warm and affectionate standing ovation.
